As per the schedule for conducting elections to the Co-operative Societies approved by the Government, elections for the first two stages in the first phase were conducted on the 7th July 2007 and the 11th July 2007, respectively. A new election schedule will be announced by the Government for fresh elections in due course.

3. As such, the conduct of elections to the said Scheduled co-operative societies will take some more time. The Government, therefore, decided to extend the period of appointment of the Special Officers of the said Scheduled co-operative societies for a further period of six months beyond the 9th August 2012 and to amend the said Act suitably for the purpose. Accordingly, the Tamil Nadu Co-operative Societies (Appointment of Special Officers) Second Amendment Ordinance, 2012 (Tamil Nadu Ordinance 13 of 2012) was promulgated by the Governor on the 3rd August 2012 and the same was published in the Tamil Nadu Government Gazette Extraordinary, dated the 3rd August 2012.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Section 7-A of the Tamil Nadu Hindu Religious and Charitable Endowments Act, 1959 (Tamil Nadu Act 22 of 1959) which provided for constitution of a District Committee for each revenue district to prepare a panel of names for appointment of non-hereditary trustees to religious institutions was omitted vide Tamil Nadu Act 15 of 2006. Since there are no District Committees to select non hereditary trustees to the religious institutions, there is inordinate delay in appointing non-hereditary trustees and lack of transparency in the selection of qualified persons for the appointment of non-hereditary trustees.

2. Now, in order to speed up the appointment of non-hereditary trustees to the religious institutions and to have transparency in their selection process, the Government have decided to constitute District Committees, comprising of scholars, philanthropists, and religious minded people to prepare panel of names for appointment of non-hereditary trustees and to amend the Tamil Nadu Hindu Religious and Charitable Endowments Act, 1959 (Tamil Nadu Act 22 of 1959) for the purpose.

3. The Bill seeks to give effect to the above decision.

M.S.M. ANANDAN,

MEMORANDUM REGARDING DELEGATED LEGISLATION

Section 7-A proposed to be inserted by clause 3 of the Bill authorises the Government to make rules to prescribe the matters relating to the District Committee and the manner in which the panel of names of qualified persons shall be prepared.
