Provided further that a person who wishes to stand as a candidate in an election to a single member constituency shall not sign any nomination as a proposer or seconder:

Provided also that the maximum number of nomination papers signed by a person who wishes to stand as a candidate in a multimember constituency as a proposer or seconder shall be one less than the number of members to be elected to that constituency.";

(c) for clause (d), the following clause shall be substituted, namely :-

"(d) On the date and time fixed in the election notice for the scrutiny of nomination papers, the Electoral Officer shall decide in writing the objections, if any, which may be made to any nomination and may, either on such objection or on his own motion, after making such summary enquiry, as he considers necessary, reject any nomination on any of the following grounds:-

(i) that on the date fixed for filing of nomination papers, the candidate either was not qualified or was disqualified for being elected to fill the vacancy under any of the provisions of the Act or the Rules; or

(ii) that there has been a failure to comply with any of the provisions in clause(a) or clause (aa) or this rule; or

(iii) that the signature of the candidate or the proposer or seconder on the nomination paper is not genuine; or

(iv) that where the election is solely for a seat or for seats reserved for Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes or Women, the candidate does not belong to such reserved category:

Provided that the nominations of a candidate shall not be rejected only on the ground of an incorrect description of his name or of the name of his proposer or seconder or of any other particulars relating to the candidate or his proposer or seconder as entered in the voters' list, if the identity of the candidate or proposer or seconder, as the case may be, is established beyond reasonable doubt.”;

(9) in sub-rule (9),-(a) for clause (a), the following clause shall be substituted, namely :-

“(a) If for any constituency for which the election is to be held, the number of candidates in respect of whom valid nominations have been filed but have not been withdrawn does not exceed the number of candidates to be elected for that constituency, such candidates shall be deemed to have been duly elected for the constituency and the names of such candidates shall be published in the notice board at the office of the society or at such other place as the Election Officer may specify, after a declaration by the Election Officer to the effect that they have been duly elected. The Election Officer shall immediately send a report to the District Election Officer, the State Election Officer and the Election Commission;

(b) after clause (b), the following clauses shall be added, namely :-

“(c) If for any constituency there is no contesting candidate, the Election Officer shall immediately send a report to the District Election Officer, the State Election Officer and the Election Commission. In such case, the Election Commission may start election proceedings afresh in all respects as if for a new election to fill up the vacancy or vacancies.

(d) In respect of reserved seats, if the number of contesting candidates qualified to be chosen to fill them is not larger than the number of vacancies, the election officer shall declare the candidate or all such candidates, as the case may be, duly elected and the names of such candidate or candidates shall be published in the notice board at the office of the society or at such other place as the election officer may specify. The Election Officer shall immediately send a report to the District Election Officer, the Election Officer and the Election Commission.

(e) If the number of contesting candidates qualified to be chosen for the reserved seats exceeds the number of seats reserved, while the total number of all contesting candidates for election is less than or equal to the total number of seats to be filled at the election, the election officer shall, after notice to the candidates concerned, decide by drawing lots, which of the candidates so qualified to fill the reserved seats shall be declared elected to the reserved seats and which of them to the non-reserved seats. Thereafter, he shall cause a copy of the list of contesting candidates in Form No. 20 to be affixed in the notice board at the office of the society and shall then declare all such candidates duly elected. The Election Officer shall immediately send a report to the District Election Officer, the State Election Officer and the Election Commission.

(f) If all the vacancies in the reserved seats to be filled at the election have been filled under clause (d) or (e) and if the number of contesting candidates remaining after the exclusion of the candidates so declared elected under the said clauses is not larger than the number of non-reserved seats to be filled at the election, the Election Officer shall cause a copy of the list of contesting candidates in Form No. 20 to be affixed in the notice board at the office of the society and after such affixation shall declare them duly elected to the non-reserved seats. The Election Officer shall immediately send a report to the District Election Officer, the State Election Officer and the Election Commission.

(g) If there are any seats remaining to be filled after following the procedure prescribed in clauses (a), (d), (e) and (f), the Election Officer shall send a report to the District Election Officer, the State Election Officer and the Election Commission. In such case, the Election Commission may start election proceedings afresh in all respects as if for a new election to fill up the vacancy or vacancies.

(h) In respect of vacancies not filled under clauses (d), (e) and (f) or where the number of contesting candidates is more than the number of seats to be filled, a poll shall be held for election from among the candidates remaining after excluding those declared elected under the said clauses.”;

(10) in sub-rule (10),-

(a) for clause (b), the following clause shall be substituted, namely :-

“(b) The ballot box shall be so constructed that ballot papers can be introduced therein but cannot be taken out there from without the box being unlocked. Every ballot box used at a polling station shall bear labels and address tags both inside and outside marked with-

(i) name of the society and the name of the constituency, if any, for which the election relates;
