In view of the above directions of the High Court, Madras, Special Officers were appointed to the village panchayats, panchayat unions and district panchayats till elections to the said village panchayats, panchayat unions and district panchayats are held and last extended the term of Special Officers upto the 31st December 2018. The term of office of the said Special Officers is due to expire on the 31st December 2018.

2. Further, a Writ Appeal No.1268/2016 was filed by the Tamil Nadu State Election Commission before the High Court of Madras against the order in W.P.No.33984/2016. In the said appeal, on 04.09.2017, the High Court of Madras has ordered that the notification announcing elections to local bodies in Tamil Nadu shall definitely be published within 18th September 2017 and election to local bodies shall be completed by 17th November 2017 and that these directions will be subject to any orders that might be passed by the Supreme Court in the appeal on 06.09.2017. In view of the said orders of High Court of Madras, particularly with reference to the pendency of appeal in Supreme Court, the Tamil Nadu State Election Commission has filed Interlocutory Application (I.A.No.88126/2017) in the Supreme Court seeking direction to permit to conduct election to the local bodies on the basis of the delimitation of territorial wards determined by the Delimitation Commission and the same is also pending before the Supreme Court. In these circumstances, Contempt Petition No.1697/2017 has been filed before the High Court of Madras for non-compliance of the orders passed in Writ Appeal No.1268/2016. The Tamil Nadu State Election Commissioner and Secretary to Tamil Nadu State Election Commission have filed affidavit explaining the causes for non-compliance of the orders passed in the said Writ Appeal. Further, in the said Contempt Petition, the Court directed the Government to file an affidavit explaining the reasons as to the alleged non-compliance of the orders and also directed to produce the files relating to the promulgation of the Tamil Nadu Ordinance No.4 of 2017. As such, the Contempt Petition No.1697 of 2017 in W.A.No.1268 of 2016 is still pending in the High Court.

3. In the said appeal, on 04.09.2017, the High Court of Madras has ordered that the notification announcing elections to local bodies in Tamil Nadu shall definitely be published within 18th September 2017 and election to local bodies shall be completed by 17th November 2017 and that these directions will be subject to any orders that might be passed by the Supreme Court in the appeal on 06.09.2017. In view of the said orders of High Court of Madras, particularly with reference to the pendency of appeal in Supreme Court, the Tamil Nadu State Election Commission has filed Interlocutory Application (I.A.No.88126/2017) in the Supreme Court seeking direction to permit to conduct election to the local bodies on the basis of the delimitation of territorial wards determined by the Tamil Nadu Delimitation Commission and the same is also pending before the Supreme Court. In these circumstances, Contempt Petition No.1697/2017 has been filed before the High Court of Madras for non-compliance of the orders passed in Writ Appeal No.1268/2016.
