Award of Police Medal for Gallantry on the occasion of the Independence Day, 2008.

[Letter No. SC/2271-36/2008, Home (S.C.),
8th October 2009.]

No. II(2)/HO/566/2009.—The following Notification of President's Secretariat, New Delhi, the 12th December 2008 is republished:—

No. 155-Pres/2008—The President is pleased to award the Police Medal for Gallantry to the undermentioned officer of Tamil Nadu Police:—

Name and Rank of the Officer:

Shri S.R. Jangid, Inspector General of Police/
Additional Commissioner of Police.

Statement of service for which the decoration has been awarded:

During the late nineties, a handful of outlaws were causing havoc and disturbing the peace and tranquility of Chennai City by indulging in heinous crimes. Among the criminal gangsters, one Ravi (alias) Vellai Ravi, son of S.P. Samy, of Viyasarpadi, Chennai was dreaded as the most merciless and cruel culprit. He had a criminal track record of having been indulged in 5 gruesome murders and 16 cases of attempt to murders, kidnapping and abduction, extortion, causing grievous hurts criminal intimidations, etc. and was detained 5 times under Goondas Act (Tamil Nadu Act 14/1982). While out of gaol he along with his accomplices used to strike terror resulting in nightmares to the denizens of Chennai City. His horrifying activities and atrocities touched the ceiling, in the beginning of 2007, On 22-05-2007 he kidnapped on Rajkumar with the help of his armed gang and released him after taking a ransom of Rs. 60 lakhs and absconded. The Commissioner of Police formed a special team led by Shri Sangaram jangid, the dynamic Additional Commissioner of Police, Chennai City with a view of putting an end to rowdyism and hooliganism in and around Chennai City. On 01-08-2007, Shri Jangid got wind of Vellai Ravi's movements in Bagalur area in Krishnagiri District and his design to kidnap Ex. MLA Shri Venkatasamy of Hosur for a ransom of Rs. 1.5 crore. At the drop of a hat Shri Jangid reached there and deployed his team members to encircle the area. Around 17.45 hrs., when Shri Jangid, with his team moved towards them with a warning to surrender, Vellai Ravi and his associates, threw petrol bombs and opened fire on the police team eventually injuring Shri Jangid on his left hand and escaped providentially.

Shri Jangid realizing that either he himself or any of his team members will certainly fall victim to the criminal's gun fire, returned fire with his pistol in self defence. Following the exchange of fire which lasted for a few minutes, in which Shri Jangid fired 6 rounds from his service pistol. Vellai Ravi and another criminal by name Guna (alias) Gunasekaran fell on the ground with bleeding injuries, and 3 of his associates carrying guns took to their heels firing on the police party taking advantage of the jungle. While Vellai Ravi was found in possession of a country made Revolver, Guna was holding a SBML gun. Both were declared as dead when brought to the Hospital, Following the elimination of Vellai Ravi and his associate the people of Chennai City started heaving a sigh of relief.

In this encounter Shri S.R. Jangid, Inspector General of Police/Additional Commissioner of Police displayed conspicuous gallantry, courage and devotion to duty of a high order.

This award is made for gallantry under Rule 4 (i) of the Rules governing the award of Police Medal and consequently carries with it the special allowance admissible under Rule 5, with effect from 1st August 2007.
